intendent Webb's office with Mr. Clarvoe. Mr.

Webb came into the room with a warrant, and gave it to Clarvoe and witness to serve. Mr.

Miller was there and threatened to break a door open. Mr. Webb told witness if Mr. Miller attempted to break the door to arrest him first.

After ascertaining who the parties were, witness and Clarvoe went to the house of Mr.

Griffin. Mr. Griffin came to the window and asked what witness wanted. Witness told him, and Griffin came down. Witness gave him the warrant to read, which he did. Witness then told him that there were others in the house who he wanted, (referring to a brother of Grif-fin, mentioned in the warrant,) and must go in

if he had to break the door in. Griffin opened the door and witness went in with him. An old man named Burns and a lady were there.

When witness went in some one pushed against the door. After looking through the house wit-

SEIZED BY THE POLICE -Tuesday, Sergeant Hurley, of the First Ward, with a posse of police, made a descent on house No 138, Twentyfourth street, and arrested the following inmates: Mrs. Sarah Harper, Carrie Sullivan, Jane Ann Johnson, Mollie Keys, Ellen Thompson, and Ann Rhodes, and took them to the station, when Justice Drury fined all the parties $1 58 each, with the exception of the first-named, who was charged with being the keeper of the house, and who ruled her trial for yesterday. The girls, after paying their fines, left the station, and in a short time returned to the house in company with some others, they having in the meantime got on a regular stare," and as soon as they got out of their carriages they commenced a big fight. The others then at the house (Sergeant Hurley and Roundsman Clements) refused to admit them, and arrested one of them, who appeared to be the ringleader, and took her to the station, where she was kent all night, when a number of soldiers (Invalid Corps) took charge of the others and carried

Mrs. Harper had her trial yesterday, when the evidence was not sufficient to warrant her being held to answer the charge of keeping the house, and she was fined $2 The house was formerly known as a branch of "No. 27," and was in the custody of the police once before, when Hattie Seymonr had an hour after an attempt was made by some one to break open the door; but witness don't the management of it; but the police will probably see that hereafter it will not be used for the same purposes. tion he saw some gentlemen standing in a GRAND LARCENY.—Last night, Officer A. H. Voss arrested Mary Bruce, colored, for stealing two fifty dollar notes from Stephen Daythreatening attitude with Mr. Griffia. After. ward officers came with a warrant to arrest Griffin. Mr. Miller threatened to break the door open. The police officer said he would himself break the door; no one else should; enport, a soldier. The soldier did not know where he had been but described the woman he was with the night before. Voss, after searching around, found Mary Bruce, in Gra-ham's alley, back of the Franklin Engine-house. He took her and her trunk and conveyed them to the Second Ward Station. Upon opening the trunk it was found to contain a Griffin in their first interview, at which time large quantity of new dry goods, which she purchased from May & Co, paying for them in two fifty dollar notes. She was committed to jail for court by Justice Clayton. This is the girl who was arrested for stealing the teamsters money last Sunday week, but was dismissed for went of proof. The money lost at that time, $114, was subsequently found in the stove in a charred condition, in the house where Mary

Bruce and the teamster stopped, in a house back of the Thirteenth street Baptist Church. A CAPTURE.-Last night, at ten o'clock, Sergeant Tait, of the Second Ward, with a squad of police, took possession of house No. 305 D street, as a bawdy house, and captured the proprietress, Mary A. Coleman, six women, and nine men, and a servant girl, and took them before Justice Clayton. Mary A. Coleman was held to bail for court in $500; each of the women was fined $2.50 for prostitution, and the men and the servant girl were dismissed. The house is located next door west of the Franklin Engine-house, and the place was taken possession of by order of Superintendent Webb, acting under the law establishing the Metropolitan Police. The keys remain in possession of the police, and a guard is stationed at the house to protect the furniture, &c. The girls, of course, must look for other quarters. THE SMALL Pox.-Hearing that the contraband hospital had been closed since the issuing of the order by Gen. Slough, requiring all coutrabands and those who are not able to employ a physician to repair to it and get vaccinated, we visited the hospital this morning in person to learn whether or not the report was true. We find that there is one Surgeon, Dr. Bigelow, in charge, during the hours set apart by the Military Governor for vaccinations. Either yesterday or day before one of the Missicnaries, Rev. Mr. Scott, took charge of the business and vaccinated some sixty odd contrabands. We learn that there is a considerable amount of small-pox in the City, and every precaution should be taken to prevent its spread .- Alexandria Journal. DELIVERED TO THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES. Yesterday, P. B. Bush and Patrick A. Kenney, of the 1st Indiana cavalry, who were confined in jail to answer the charge of killing Peter Mank, a comrade, on the 5th of August last, on Fourteenth street, were delivered to the mili-tary authorities for trial, in compliance with a request from Gen. Auger, commanding this department. The first-named is charged as the principal and the latter as accessory, and the murdered man was killed by being struck with Meguire, disorderly; do. Edw H. Franser, drunk and disorderly;

SECOND WARD STATION CASES .- W. J. Miller, threats; bail for peace. Anna M. L. Black, assault and battery; for hearing. J. S. Hager, drunk and disorderly; military. Dan'l Dougherty, profanity; $1.58. Wm. Wood, drunk and disorderly; dismissed. Jas. Lee, do; do. Chas. E. Wilson, do.; military. Chas. Wilson, alias Alfred Harward, drunk; dismissed. John Dickson, disorderly; $2. Edward Magee, suspicious character; sent to Superintendent Webb.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY .- Henry Hubbard, keeper of Rulman's Hotel, on Penna. avenue, was fined $25 on Tuesday, by Justice Ferguson, for selling liquor on Sunday.

James Jueneman, keeper of a saloon corner of Fourth and D streets, was also fined $25 for the same offense, by Justice Ferguson. A lot of Government property was found on the prem-ness of Jueneman, which was turned over to room, names of the teachers, with the places where educated; the number of years they have served, and time when appointed here.

From these tables it appears that on November 1st, 1863, there were 3,335 pupils attending the schools, of whom 659 were in the 12 schools of the 1st District; 766 in 11 schools in 2d District; 1041 in 18 schools in 3d District and 869 in 15 schools of the 4th District. 2,685 scholars also attend Sunday schools. 480 scholars have been in schools in the different States; and 7 in foreign countries before entering schools here. In the night schools only 201 sholars are reported for 1862 and 1863, of whom 72 were in the 2d District, 65 in the 3d, and 67 in the 4th. A table is also given showing the accupations of the parents of the children as follows: Carpenters 386, clerks 254, blacksmiths 168, laborers the property sergeant. penters 386, clerks 254, blacksmiths 168, laborers 162, merchants 196, &c.; &c.

[This tables does not show the actual number of persons of different occupations—a parent having more than one child being counted as many times as he has children.]

From a table of the Columbian College the property sergeant.

GRAND LARCENY.—On Tuesday eyening, Wm. Jackson, colored, seized a coat hanging at the door of Smith's clothing store, in the First Ward, and attempted to make off with it, when Officer Hurdle arrested him, and Justice Drury committed him to jail.
